Please consider the following when making your nomination: The DCNGYLC is looking for students who are of sound moral character, who are in good academic standing (at least a 2.0 GPA), that demonstrate a awareness of the responsibilities of good citizenship and the potential to be a leader, or a better leader. The program is geared toward students who are above average in the qualities set forth in the above criteria, or at least have demonstrated the potential to be. It is not designed for those who do not possess these qualities as it would deny other campers the opportunity to undergo experiences that meet their needs.
